RE: 3:97cr00006

Dear Judge Brown,

I write in regards to the above case number, where I was sentenced to 400 months for aiding and abetting the sale of 6.4 grams of cocaine base, and money laundering where I received 240 months in May 1997. I was sentenced by the Honorable Neal Biggers.

It has come to my attention that Judge Biggers has retired. Before his retirement, I made two motions to the Court. I still have a crack motion from 2012 pending, and an all drugs minus two motion pending. Also, I have written the Court requesting a review of my case, because two agents who testified at trial and sentencing have been convicted, sentenced, and incarcerated. One is Harry Bostic, IRS-CID and the other is former Head of the Central Delta Task Force, Agent Ronnie Jones, who pled guilty to extortion and bribery in Southern District of Mississippi.

I have not heard anything in regards to these inquiries and was wondering if it were possible for my case to be assigned to your Court. I am a former resident of Mound Bayou, MS.

Enclosed is a copy of some of my accomplishments in prison, and work history along with my disciplinary report.

Your assistance would be greatly appreciated and thank you for your time and consideration.

Thank you and God Bless.

Respectfully,

Maurice Clifton, Sr.

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

FROM: B. Hunt, Quality Assurance Manager

SUBJECT: Work Performance of Maurice Clifton

This memorandum is to document the work performance of Maurice Clifton. He has been gainfully employed in this furniture factory since May 2017. During this time he has been characterized as an energetic, highly motivated achiever. He has enthusiastically tackled all assignments given to him and completed them with precision and accuracy.

He has been employed as a Lead-man and SAP Production Clerk Trainer among other duties in UNICOR here at Forrest City for the past 12 months. During his employment here, he has been under my direct supervision and daily observation. I have found him to be exceptionally reliable, always at his job on time, with a good work attitude and good work ethics. He is exceptionally respectful and helpful to the staff and other inmates and gets along well with everyone he is in contact with. During his almost twenty-one (21) years of incarceration he has maintained a spotless record. This type of conduct is expected from all inmates but seldom achieved for this length of time. He has implemented production monitoring processes that has lowered the cost of Rework, thus saving Unicor money.

I have had several conversations with this inmate during the last few months regarding his future plans after his release. His plans and goals of using his ASQ certification are well grounded, reasonable, and attainable. He has a home and family to go to, and life-long friends for moral support.

He follows organization policy and supports any changes or decisions that are made by management. He is well respected by all those who have had the pleasure to work with him in this factory. His extremely cooperative demeanor and willing personality have promoted harmony in this environment and will be greatly missed.

His industrious attitude and ability to get a job done correctly will inspire great trust and confidence in others ensuring success in any environment he is placed into in the future.

Boris Hunt,
Quality Assurance Manager
